Terms and Conditions

Project Scope

The project scope is defined by the approved PRD (Product Requirements Document) and Scope of Work documents.

Payment Terms

The client agrees to the following payment structure:

- 40% upfront - Due upon project commencement and signing of agreement
- 40% midway - Due upon completion of development phase (Week 3)
- 20% final - Due upon project completion, testing, and deployment

All payments must be made within 7 days of invoice issuance. Late payments may result in project delays.

Timeline

The estimated timeline is 4 weeks from project commencement, subject to:

- Timely client approvals at each project milestone
- Prompt feedback on deliverables and review requests
- Availability of required information and assets from the client
- No major scope changes during development

Delays in client responses or approvals may extend the timeline accordingly.

Change Management

Any changes to the project scope must be:

- Requested in writing via email or official communication channel
- Reviewed and approved by both parties before implementation
- Documented in a Change Request form

Impact: Approved scope changes may impact:

- Project cost (additional charges may apply)
- Project timeline (extensions may be necessary)
- Resource allocation and priorities

Minor bug fixes and clarifications within the original scope are not considered change requests.

Ownership and Intellectual Property

Upon receipt of final payment (100%):

- All project deliverables will be transferred to the client
- Full ownership of source code, designs, and documentation transfers to the client
- The client receives all rights to use, modify, and distribute the deliverables

Until final payment is received, the developer retains ownership of all work product.

Termination

Either party may terminate this agreement with written notice:

- Client termination: The client will be billed for all completed work up to the termination date, based on project milestones achieved
- Developer termination: The developer will refund any payments for incomplete work, minus costs already incurred

Upon termination:

- All work completed to date will be delivered to the client
- Payment for completed milestones remains due
- Both parties are released from future obligations

Confidentiality

Both parties agree to:

- Maintain confidentiality of all proprietary information shared during the project
- Use confidential information solely for the purpose of completing this project
- Return or destroy confidential materials upon project completion or termination

Exceptions: Information that is publicly available, independently developed, or required to be disclosed by law.

The developer may showcase the project in their portfolio unless explicitly prohibited by the client in writing.

Note: By proceeding with this project, both parties acknowledge and agree to these terms and conditions.
